WASHINGTON, DC, February 1, 2016 – Ames & Gough, a leading insurance broker and risk management consultant specializing in serving design professionals, law firms, associations/nonprofits and other professional service organizations, has announced the appointment of Erin Sullivan as client executive-Associations/Nonprofits.

Based in the Washington, DC office, Ms. Sullivan will focus on serving the firm’s growing number of association and nonprofit clients along with Tom Marchetti, vice president and partner who leads that practice at Ames & Gough, and other members of the firm.

“Erin joins us at a time when Ames & Gough is experiencing steady growth in all areas of our business,” said Dan Knise, president and chief executive officer, Ames & Gough. “Her experience and academic grounding in business will serve her well in addressing the diverse insurance and risk management needs of our association and nonprofit clients. We’re pleased to welcome Erin to our team.”

Before joining Ames & Gough, Ms. Sullivan was with First Financial Group in Baltimore, where she was a financial representative working with individuals and small businesses on financial planning, investments, life and disability insurance and related matters. Earlier, she was a sales representative with Insphere Insurance Solutions. She also has worked as an accountant and apartment sales agent/listing specialist. A graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a B.S. degree in accounting and an M.B.A., she is treasurer of the Central Maryland Chapter of Women in Financial Services.
