BOSTON, MA, February 2, 2016 – Ames & Gough, a leading insurance broker and risk management consultant specializing in serving design professionals, law firms, associations/nonprofits and other professional service organizations, has announced the appointment of Jared Maxwell as vice president and equity partner of the firm. The appointment brings to 14 the number of equity partners of Ames & Gough, which was established in 1992.

“Ever since joining Ames & Gough three years ago, Jared has been a key contributor to the firm’s success, bringing considerable value to our architect and engineer clients, not only in Boston but around the country. Jared’s extensive experience working with A/E firms has allowed him to play a significant role in our steady growth throughout the region,” said Dan Knise, president and chief executive officer, Ames & Gough. “We’re delighted to welcome him as an equity partner of the firm and look forward to his continued contributions and leadership in the years ahead.”

Based in the Ames & Gough Boston, MA office, Mr. Maxwell joined Ames & Gough in 2013 after serving for many years at Marsh in a variety of sales and client service positions. At Marsh he focused on design firm professional liability and executive risk insurance, and was a key member of Marsh’s ACEC Business Insurance Trust (ACEC BIT) team. He earned a B.S. degree in business administration and marketing from Drake University.
