WASHINGTON, DC, September 8, 2014 – The American Bar Association (ABA) has appointed Eileen Garczynski as a member of its Standing Committee on Lawyers' Professional Liability. Ms. Garczynski, who is based in Washington, DC, serves as a senior vice president and partner with Ames & Gough, a leading insurance broker and risk management consultant specializing in serving design and construction professionals, law firms and associations/non-profits.

Her appointment to the ABA Committee is for a three-year term, commencing this month with the adjournment of the ABA's 2014 annual meeting. In addition to her work on the ABA Committee, Ms. Garczynski will remain in her role at Ames & Gough where she also co-leads the Law Firm practice, focusing on the risk management and insurance needs of law firms. She joined the firm in 2007 and has more than 25 years of legal, risk management, claims, and insurance experience.

Earlier in her career, Ms. Garczynski was a claims manager and attorney for both Travelers Insurance Company and a Wausau Insurance Company subsidiary. She also was a litigation and risk manager for the American Red Cross and spent seven years with LexisNexis as a strategic market planning manager, developing key insurance and legal products for law firms, insurers and others.

Ms. Garczynski earned a law degree from the University of Baltimore School of Law, a market strategy certificate from Georgetown University, and an undergraduate degree, cum laude, from the College of Wooster. In addition to her participation on the ABA's Professional Liability Committee, she was formerly vice chair of the Insurance & Risk Management Committee for the Section of Intellectual Property Law of the ABA.

Ames & Gough, founded in 1992, has established itself as a committed, superior resource for law firms, design professionals, and other consulting firms and professional organizations and associations in need of professional liability insurance and risk management assistance. In recent years, the firm has expanded its capabilities to include management liability, employment practices liability, kidnap & ransom and related insurances; as well as more typical property and casualty insurances. The firm has offices in Boston, Philadelphia, and Washington, DC. Visit the Ames & Gough Website at <http://www.amesgough.com/>.
