BOSTON, MA, February 7, 2013 – Ames & Gough, a leading insurance broker and risk management consultant specializing in serving design and construction professionals, law firms and associations/non-profits, today announced an expansion of its client service team in Boston with the appointment of Jared J. Maxwell as a senior client executive.

“As Ames & Gough commences its 21st year of operations, we see increasing demand for the specialized expertise we bring to clients along with an appreciation for our client-first focus,” said Mike Herlihy, executive vice president of Ames & Gough and head of the Boston office. “Jared’s experience in addressing the insurance and risk management needs of design firms will serve him well as he joins our client management team.”

At Ames & Gough, Mr. Maxwell will be responsible for all aspects of client service and business development. Previously, he was with Marsh where he held a variety of sales and client service positions focusing on design firm professional liability and executive risk for eight years. He earned a B.S. degree in Business Administration and Marketing from Drake University.

With 1,000 architects, engineering firms, and other construction professionals of all sizes as clients, Ames & Gough is the leading insurance brokerage and risk consulting firm serving the needs of these professionals. Ames & Gough also has established itself as a committed, superior resource for law firms and associations and non-profit organizations in need of professional liability, management liability, and property/casualty insurance and risk management assistance. Established in 1992, the firm has offices in Boston, MA; Philadelphia, PA, and Washington, DC. Clients throughout the U.S. are served by a team of 28 professionals and staff located in the three offices. Visit the Ames & Gough Website at www.amesgough.com.
