BOSTON, MA, October 7, 2014 – Ames & Gough, a leading insurance broker and risk management consultant specializing in serving design professionals, law firms, associations/nonprofits and other professional service firms, has announced the appointment of Rachelle Tucker as a senior broker in the firm’s Property/Casualty Department. She is based in the Boston, Massachusetts office.

“As clients throughout the Northeast increasingly turn to Ames & Gough for all their insurance needs, we are continuing to expand our property/casualty operations with a focus on delivering the same level of excellent service that has long distinguished our industry-leading expertise in professional liability and management liability insurance,” said Mike Herlihy, executive vice president of Ames & Gough and head of the firm’s Boston operations. “Rachelle’s extensive insurance experience in account management and demonstrated commitment to client service make her a strong addition to our team.”

Ms. Tucker, who has 16 years of insurance industry experience, previously was with Knapp, Schenk Insurance Services in Boston, as account manager for large commercial lines. During the course of her career, she has held positions in commercial and personal lines account management, as well as customer service with various insurance companies and agencies in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

She began her career in 1998 as a customer service representative with One Beacon Insurance in Foxborough and subsequently moved into account management roles at other firms. She earned an Associate Degree in Business Administration from Fisher College, where she is continuing her undergraduate studies. Ms. Tucker has been a member of the Massachusetts Association of Insurance Women and is a former director of the Bristol Chapter.
