WASHINGTON, DC, January 30, 2015 – Ames & Gough, a leading insurance broker and risk management consultant specializing in serving design professionals, law firms, associations/nonprofits and other professional service organizations, has announced the appointment of Allison Buytenhuys as an equity partner of the firm. The appointment brings to 13 the number of equity partners of Ames & Gough, which was established in 1992.

“Throughout the course of her career at Ames & Gough, Allison has been a key contributor to the firm’s success, bringing efficiency and innovation to our administrative and marketing functions, as well as critical support for our initiatives to expand our service capabilities,” said Dan Knise, president and chief executive officer, Ames & Gough. “We’re delighted to welcome her as an equity partner of the firm and look forward to her participation in the firm’s continued success.”

Based in the Ames & Gough McLean, VA office, Ms. Buytenhuys also holds the title of vice president. In addition to overseeing administrative functions, including accounting, technology, and licensing, she assists with human resources and employee benefits, and provides service to several of the firm’s clients. She joined Ames & Gough in 2001, after serving as a marketing assistant for Victor O. Schinnerer. Ms. Buytenhuys earned a B.S. degree in Business Marketing from Penn State University.
